

Geography 20F

Credit Value: 1.0

---

Pre-requisite: Social Studies 10G

Course Description:

The purpose of this course is to examine the characteristics of physical and social environments of North America and to analyze the interrelationships and interactions among them. This course will have a primary focus on Canada and references will be made to other areas of the world.

The main goals of this program are to help students explore and better understand basic geographic skills in the areas listed below, using problem solving, research, individual and group projects.

- a) Map Skills, GPS and GIS
- b) Geographic Literacy
- c) Natural Resources
- d) Food from the Land
- e) Industry & Trade
- f) Urban Places