

Law 40S

Credit Value: 1.0

Course Description:

The Law 40S course has been developed for high school students who have a keen interest in Canadian law and wish to understand how it functions within our society. While engaging in this course, students will discover that the law is not necessarily black and white. While providing understanding as to how law functions in Canada, Law 40S will develop your critical thinking, organizational, and research skills. To accomplish these goals, the course is divided into two key components: theoretical and practical.

Law 40S aims to cover the following areas of law. Some areas will be examined in greater detail than others given time restrictions and student interest,

Theoretical Topics of Study:

1. An Introduction to Law
2. Rights, Freedoms, and Responsibilities
3. Criminal Law
4. Civil Law
5. Family Law
6. Contract and Business Law
